WELCOME TO MARYLAND

As a Maryland native, I am excited to be home and eager to continue Maryland's tradition as an Atlantic Coast Conference powerhouse and to quickly grow our presence on the national scene.

This year's team is looking forward to returning to the level of play that brought back-to-back-to-back ACC championships to College Park in 2003, 2004 and 2005. The schedule features seven matches against teams that made the NCAA Tournament last season. Our home invitational on September 5-6 brings nationally-recognized programs Missouri, St. John's and Kentucky to Comcast Pavilion and our pre-conference tournament schedule includes a trip to New Orleans September 12-13.

Our determination to become a perennial top-25 program is matched only by our expectation to maintain the strong academic tradition of Maryland's past student-athletes. We placed three players on the 2007 ACC All-Academic Team and our goal is to repeat or exceed that number this season.

The 2008 Terrapins roster blends experienced veterans and exciting newcomers. Our five-member senior class should prove invaluable to our four first-year players. The new crop of Terps features a group of dynamic athletes with great potential, all of whom have seen great success academically, as well.

Maryland Volleyball is fortunate to play in Comcast Center – the nation's premier on-campus athletic facility. Comcast Center Pavilion has undergone an exciting facelift for the 2008 season, with the addition of a new, volleyball-specific playing court. Our locker room has also doubled in size and now features custom wood lockers, a team lounge with flat-screen television and wireless Internet, custom carpet and designer Maryland graphics and logos. Admission to home matches is free, so come out and be a part of the Maryland Volleyball community.

We appreciate your support in 2008. You can follow the team year-round on umterps.com, which contains updated statistics, player and coach biographies, schedules and results, photo galleries and archived information from past seasons. We also provide regular e-mail updates to our Friends of Maryland Volleyball support group. Video streaming will be available for many matches, while live statistics will be provided for all home matches and most road matches.

Maryland rebuilds quickly, starts 15-0

By Laura Boswell
USA TODAY

Volleyball

This was supposed to be a rebuilding year.

Maryland, which went 26-5 last year and 16-0 in the Atlantic Coast Conference, lost some seasoned players and with them the chance to repeat as conference champion or to return to the NCAA women's volleyball tournament.

Or so it appeared.

Daune Koester, 1996 ACC player of the year, graduated. Kirwala had a baby in May and wasn't expected to be back in time for the start of the season. Middle hitter Conya Jabarin, hitter Elizabeth Efron, after playing for the Argentine national team and having reconstructive knee surgery, had no eligibility left.

For experience, Maryland would have to cling to returning all-ACC setter Eden Kroeger. The Terrapins, picked to finish fourth in the ACC, braced for a long season.

"We were definitely looking at some significant adjustments," coach Patricia Kruger said. "No one really knew how Kroeger, who has 4,541 career assists and continues to add to her school record, feels the drive goes deeper: "We have a lot of heart. We don't go into a match thinking we're underdogs. If anything, it makes teams want to beat us even more."

Especially ACC teams. Maryland already has beaten North Carolina, Duke and Florida State.

Some of the real tests are to come, including visits to Clemson and Georgia Tech next weekend.

"We can never relax," says Efron, who has been ACC player of the week twice. "We are always learning about the other teams: What they do, who hits where. We have to be prepared, because everyone is out to beat us."

LEYBALL CENTER

Maryland's new home for Terrapin Athletics was completed in the fall of 2002 and is widely recognized as the best, on-campus, student activities center and athletics home in the country. Comcast Center provides a seating capacity of 17,950 fans for basketball and serves as a campus site for university special events and select community events.

Maryland Volleyball competes in the Comcast Center Pavilion, a 1,500-seat gymnasium that creates a loud, exciting atmosphere and a decided home-court advantage. Terrapin faithful are known to yell "Point Terps!" each time Maryland spikes a ball to the hardwood. In 2008, a new, volleyball-specific playing court was painted in the Pavilion.

The Maryland Volleyball locker room also underwent an exciting facelift for 2008. The team's locker room has doubled in size and now features custom wood lockers, a team lounge with flat-screen television and wireless Internet, custom carpet and designer Maryland graphics and logos.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center is also located in the Comcast Center. This 7,000-square-foot provides an enhanced study atmosphere for Maryland Volleyball student-athletes and features a computer room, individual and group study areas, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and offices for Maryland's dedicated staff of professional academic counselors.

In the highly competitive world of collegiate volleyball, the off-court preparation of the volleyball athlete is a critical component to on-court success. The Maryland Volleyball team utilizes a fully-equipped weight training facility conveniently located down the hall from the team's locker room. The 4,000 square foot facility features a combination of Sorinex weight training equipment and York free weight equipment. Strength and conditioning staff personally train each student-athlete before, during and after the season.

Comcast Center also houses a state-of-the-art Sports Medicine facility and the university's athletics administration offices. In addition, the Sprint-Nextel Heritage Hall multi-purpose room (capacity 400) is equipped to host banquets, press conferences, meetings and serves as a pre-game restaurant suite overlooking the competition arena, while twenty suites provide enhanced viewing and entertainment capabilities for Maryland fans.

The Terrapin Walk of Fame and History flows throughout the concourse and lobby areas of Comcast Center and is an excellent place for alumni and fans to enjoy their favorite sports and share in their common Terrapin spirit. Visitors can learn about the men and women who have forged the Maryland Athletics program among the nation's elite. The Terrapin Team Store, located just off the soaring three-level atrium lobby, allows visitors to outfit their pride and sport the latest Maryland gear.

COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE

Maryland Athletics is widely recognized as one of the nation's best. Below, are just a few of the many recent honors earned by the Terrapins:

- Maryland has won an incredible 16 National Championships over the last 14 years.
- Maryland is one of only three schools to have won National Championships in Football, Men's Basketball and Women's Basketball (UCLA and Stanford are the others).
- US News & World Report ranked Maryland Athletics among the Top 20 programs in the nation.
- Sports Illustrated for Women ranked Maryland as a Top 10 school for women's athletics.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

1 :: The Maryland men's basketball team, coached by Gary Williams, the school's all-time winningest coach, won the 2002 NCAA Championship by defeating Indiana, 64-52, at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta.

2 :: The men's soccer team won the 2005 NCAA Championship with a 1-0 win over New Mexico in Cary, N.C. Headlining that title-squad was the 2005 MAC Hermann Trophy winner, Jason Garey, shown pictured with Terp head coach Sasho Cirovski.

3 :: The Terrapin field hockey program won back-to-back NCAA titles in 2005 and 2006, bringing its total to five national championships. Leading those squads for coach Missy Meharg was Paula Infante, who was a four-time first team All-American and a two-time winner of the Honda Award.

6 :: One of the most dominating teams on campus is the Maryland Competitive Cheer squad. The Terps have won three consecutive NCA (National Cheerleading Association) Championships.

9 :: The 2006 women's basketball team survived two overtime games in the NCAA Tournament, including the championship game against Duke, to win the program's first NCAA Championship. Kristi Toliver's three-pointer that sent the game into overtime will forever be known in College Park as "The Shot."

INDIVIDUAL SUCCESS

Maryland student-athletes are among the best in the world and often compete on the world stage. Men's lacrosse alum Joe Walters [4], the school's all-time leading goal scorer, is currently a member of the U.S. National Team. D.J. Strawberry [5] is the latest in a long line of Terps in the NBA. The Houston Rockets guard joins a list that includes former No. 1 overall pick Joe Smith. One glance at NFL rosters on any Sunday in the fall will show a number of Terps making a living playing professional football. Among them is San Francisco 49er tight end Vernon Davis [7], who was the No. 6 overall pick in the 2006 NFL Draft. Hudson Taylor [8] was named the ACC's 2008 Scholar-Athlete of the Year for wrestling. He also earned All-America honors with a third-place finish at 197 pounds at the 2008 NCAA Championships.

TESTUDO:
TALE OF THE TOP SHELL

Testudo is Maryland's one-of-a-kind mascot ... a Diamondback turtle, native to the Chesapeake Bay.

Dr. H.C. Byrd, the legendary football coach who later became University President, recommended the Diamondback as mascot in 1932 in response to the student newspaper's search for an "official" leader. The school paper was in fact already called The Diamondback.

The Class of 1933 gave as its graduation gift a permanent bronzed version that presides over McKeldin Mall to this day. In 1935, the student yearbook, The Reveille, changed its name to The Terrapin. Newpapers quickly shortened Terrapin to Terp for headline writing ease and the name was here to stay.

2008 SEASON OUTLOOK

TERPS FEATURE MIX OF TALENTED YOUTH AND VETERAN LEADERSHIP

The 2008 University of Maryland volleyball season will feature a mixture of familiar faces in the lineup and several program newcomers.

While seniors Mary Beth Brown, Maggie Schmelzle and Tedi Doucet are back for their final collegiate seasons, the 2008 Terps will unveil several fresh faces, beginning with a brand-new coaching staff.

After 20 years of service to Maryland, Janice Kruger announced her retirement in late January, leaving the program as the winningest coach in Atlantic Coast Conference history.

On February 9, Dayton head coach Tim Horsmon was announced as the new head coach of Maryland volleyball. Horsmon comes to College Park with an impressive resume, including a 33-2 season and AVCA Northeast Region Coach of the Year honors at Dayton last season. In nine years as a head coach combined at Robert Morris and Dayton, Horsmon has led his team to eight NCAA Tournament appearances.

Despite his previous successes, Horsmon knows there is a lot of work to be done to get the Terps to the level he envisions.

That hard work began in spring ball, where Horsmon and assistant coaches Tami Ores and Jason Oliver had the chance to get a feel for the current players and vice versa.

"I think last spring was a good opportunity for us and the team to really start to get on the same page with what we were asking of them and teaching them what our expectation levels are," Horsmon said. "That was a good beginning. The spring, combined with beginning of preseason practice, has been a good chance to create the type of culture in the gym necessary to make this into a nationally-recognized program."

Inheriting a new team is always a challenge for a new coach trying to build a national contender. Fortunately for Horsmon, he has a lot of support on the floor with Brown, Schmelzle and Doucet.

"They have been great so far," said Horsmon of his senior trio. "All three of them are great kids. All three really care about the program and they're going to work really hard to make the program better. They're good people to have in our program to set an example to their teammates and show what we are trying to do here. We're really lucky to have them."

Although Horsmon dominated conference play at Robert Morris and Dayton to the tune of a 93-10 combined league record, the ACC figures to be a tougher challenge. The Terrapins were predicted to finish seventh of 12 teams in the league's preseason poll and only Brown was named to the Preseason All-ACC team.

While the ultimate goal is an ACC title and trip to the NCAA Tournament, Horsmon said the most important thing right now is continuing to get better every day.

"I think we have the players in the program right now to be as good as we want to be and the NCAA Tournament is in the back of our minds," Horsmon said. "However, right now we just need to work on getting better every single day in the gym. We need to get better individually, as a team and as a program and we need to keep bringing in the right type of players to make that happen."

OUTSIDE HITTERS

The Terps lose two of the best players in school history at the outside hitter position with the graduations of Beth Gillming and Jade Brown. Jade Brown is currently third on Maryland's all-time kills list and Gillming is the school's all-time leader in games played.

Despite the losses of Jade Brown and Gillming, outside hitter remains a position of strength.

Sophomore Michelle Kenning figures to be the team's go-to attacker in the lineup after a good freshman campaign that culminated in an ACC All-Freshman Team selection.

Kenning hits the ball as hard as anyone in the ACC and with her improved all-around game, could develop into one of the best players in the conference.

"Michelle obviously had a good year, last year. She really took some big steps forward in the spring and not only established herself as a go-to player on the team, but really came out as one of the leaders on the team, which was really good to see as a rising sophomore," Horsmon said. "She possesses all the intangibles that great players have and I expect a lot of great things from her."

After splitting time the previous two seasons between outside hitter and libero, Schmelzle is set to play her final season on the outside.

Schmelzle is perhaps the most well-rounded player on the team. She can be featured as an attacker, but her ball control skills make her a valuable defensive asset, as well.

"Maggie had a great spring and she's a really knowledgeable player," Horsmon said. "I'm looking for her to come out with a consistent fire and energy. If she can do that, she's really going to help us win some matches this year."

Freshman Maddi Lee should also see a lot of playing time in the rotation. Lee, a Clarksville, Md. native from River Hill High School, is a very balanced player with a high ceiling.

"Coming in, Maddi is as physically gifted as any player I've ever coached at that position," Horsmon said. "We're really excited about her skills. She just needs to learn the technical side of what we're doing so she can build the confidence to be an elite player here. Once that happens, great things will happen for her."

Rounding out the outside hitting rotation are juniors Ashley Hogan and Christina Paul.

Hogan is an excellent athlete, but is still suffering from a spring foot injury. Once she recovers, however, Horsmon plans on using her in the rotation.

Paul is a utility player with great energy and enthusiasm. She can play on the left side, but should also see plenty of time as a defensive specialist. Her work ethic endeared her to the coaching staff early.

"She's a great kid who works extremely hard. She's passionate about the game and takes it seriously," Horsmon said. "She had a great spring and we're going to ask her to do a lot of different things."

RIGHT SIDE

Mary Beth Brown is going to anchor the right side for the Terps this season, acting as one of the top attacking and blocking threats on the team.

Brown was selected to the Preseason All-ACC team this season and appears poised for a big year.

"Mary Beth, with her height and athletic ability, is one of the best talents I've ever coached," Horsmon said. "Her vertical leap has improved a lot in the off-season. I want her to come out with an improved confidence this season with the idea that she's going to take over some matches. As a blocker, she already does that. But we need her to be an offensive force."

Sophomore Brittney Grove will also play on the right side this season in a hybrid right-side-middle-hitter role.

Grove asserted herself toward the end of 2007 as a reliable attacker and blocker, also displaying a knack for converting clutch kills and making key blocks in big spots.

"Brittney's great, a really hard-working player. She has a great attitude and really wants to do well," Horsmon said. "She's an excellent athlete and her intelligence should really ease the transition into a new position.

Schmelzle and Lee could also see time on the right side.

MIDDLE BLOCKERS

The Terps are in excellent position on the middle this season with junior Katie Usher and freshman Lisa Scott.

Usher led the team with a .331 hitting percentage in 2007 and set the school record for block assists in a season with 180 her freshman season.

Usher has good size at 6-feet-3-inches and combines good footwork to make her an excellent player.

"I think Katie is one of the best players on the team at doing what they're supposed to do in all responsibilities of the position they play," Horsmon said. "She executes her attacks and blocks correctly with great consistency. In our offense, we try to get the ball to the middles early, so she has a chance for a great season. She's a really strong athlete, she hits all the sets well and she has a great feel for blocking."

Scott comes to Maryland from an excellent high school program in Langley High in McLean, Va., the same high school as Terp middle Meredith Doyle.

Although she is only a freshman, Scott could be one of the best players on the team this season. Scott possesses great size at 6-feet-3-inches and she's a raw, powerful athlete with the potential to dominate a match.

"Lisa is a tremendous athlete and a tremendous kid," Horsmon said. "She's very bright and she wants to know how to play the right way. I would expect a lot of big things from her in the program. She's definitely going to compete for a spot right off the bat."

Doyle and fellow senior Kathleen Wilson will add valuable experience in the middle.

Hayley Hanson

SETTERS

Doucet and junior Hayley Hanson provide Maryland with a lot of previous experience at the setter position.

With Horsmon's 6-2 offense, both will see plenty of floor time in 2008.

Doucet is coming off an injury-marred season that limited her to 14 matches in 2007. If Doucet is fully healthy going into the season, she will be the primary setter. But either way, Hanson's experience from 2007 will come in handy.

"If we can keep Tedi healthy for a full four months, that's going to be great for us. She's a good player and she's had a good career here," Horsmon said. "However, Hayley got a lot of experience last year and she's really matured at the position. If both of those players are playing well, we'll be in pretty good shape and be able to run the 6-2 like I envision."

Sophomore Rachel Profit could also see time at setter, though she also has the athleticism and quickness to play libero. Profit is recovering from shoulder surgery in the spring.

Freshman Sharon Strizak figures into the team's long-term plans at setter. Strizak primarily played front row in high school, but the coaching staff is developing her into a setter.

LIBEROS/DEFENSIVE SPECIALISTS

Sophomore Bethany Springer had a great spring to earn the starting libero nod.

Springer split time last year with Profit and Schmelzle, but showed signs of greatness, including a team season-high 33 digs in a win against North Carolina.

Springer is an excellent athlete and an extremely smart player, which has not gone unnoticed or unappreciated in the eyes of the coaches.

"Bethany is as neat a person as I've ever coached," Horsmon said. "She's a really hard worker, loves playing the game and is really analytical. She so smart, she over-processes things at times. She's a perfectionist. The improvements she's made since last season should be noticeable right away. If she can improve on her serving and serve-receiving, she's going to be a great libero. I also see her asserting herself more and more as a leader on this team, which is pretty neat in a sophomore."

Paul can play the libero spot and also a general defensive expert.

Rounding out the rotation is sophomore transfer Marissa Odom from Georgia Southern. Odom has impressed coaches early with her fiery nature and splendid work ethic.

SCHEDULE

Horsmon has assembled an impressive schedule this season, with seven matches against teams that made the NCAA Tournament last season.

The 2008 season kicks off August 29 in Richmond, Va. for the VCU Third Degree Sportswear Invitational.

The Terps begin with Central Michigan on the 29th and face Liberty and Virginia Commonwealth August 30.

The home slate begins September 5 for the Spring Hill Suites at Arundel Mills Invitational. This year's field brings three NCAA Tournament programs to College Park. The Terps will face Missouri on September 5 and Kentucky and St. John's on September 6.

Maryland travels to New Orleans the following weekend for the Allstate Sugar Bowl and matches against North Dakota State, Jacksonville State and Tulane, respectively.

The final non-conference tune-up takes place a short trip north in Towson, Md., for the Towson Invitational September 19-20. The Terps will face Towson, Lehigh and North Dakota in the tournament.

ACC play starts September 23 with a weekday match against Boston College in Comcast Pavilion.

The first conference road trip of the season sends Maryland to North Carolina and NC State before returning home the following weekend to face Virginia Tech and Virginia.

The Terps are at Florida State October 10 and Miami October 12. Georgia Tech comes to College Park October 17, followed two days later by defending ACC Champion Clemson.

After matches at Duke and Wake Forest October 24 and 25, respectively, the Terps return home to finish the home portion of the schedule with four straight matches at Comcast Pavilion.

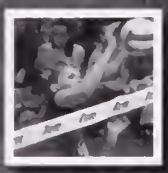
Maryland welcomes NC State on Halloween, followed by North Carolina November 2. Miami is in town November 7 and the final home game of the season is set for November 8 against Florida State.

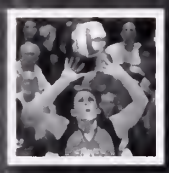
The Terps face a challenging stretch run this season, closing the year with five road matches at Virginia, Virginia Tech, Clemson, Georgia Tech and Boston College.

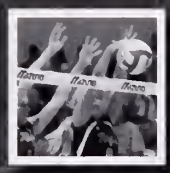
The ACC schedule has been cut from 22 matches to 20 this season. The Terps will play every conference foe twice, minus Duke and Wake Forest, which they will only play on the road. Due to the unbalanced schedule, Maryland has only nine home matches in the ACC as opposed to 11 on the road.

There is no ACC Tournament this year.

NCAA Tournament play begins December 4 on campus sites. Regional play is set for December 12 and 13 with the semifinals and finals scheduled for December 18 and 20 in Omaha, Neb.







HEAD COACH TIM HORSMON

FIRST SEASON AT MARYLAND • 10TH SEASON OVERALL • FROSTBURG STATE '91

Tim Horsmon became only the third coach in Maryland volleyball history in February 2008, coming to College Park, Md. after five extremely successful seasons at the University of Dayton.

Horsmon's collegiate career ranks among the greatest starts in NCAA history. In nine years as a Division I head coach, his teams have earned eight trips to the NCAA Tournament, eight conference championships (including a 17-1 record in conference tournament play), and a tremendous 225-93 (.708) overall record. His teams have amassed an amazing 93-10 record (.903) in conference regular-season matches at both Dayton and Robert Morris.

From 2003 through 2007, Horsmon led the University of Dayton to unprecedented success. In five seasons, his teams won four Atlantic 10 Conference Tournament championships (2003, 2004, 2005, 2007) and earned four NCAA Tournament berths (2003, 2004, 2005, 2007) -- the first conference championships and NCAA berths in program history.

His 2007 team finished with a 33-2 overall record, a second-round NCAA Tournament appearance and a ranking in the CSTV/AVCA Top 25 Coaches Poll, reaching as high as 12th during the season. Horsmon was named the 2007 American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Northeast Region Coach of the Year and the 2005 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year.

At Dayton, Horsmon coached four consecutive A-10 Players of the Year (2003, 2004, 2005, 2006), back-to-back Atlantic 10 Setters of the Year (2005, 2006), two A-10 Rookies of the Year (2003, 2007), four A-10 Most Outstanding Players of the Year (2003, 2004, 2005, 2007) and eight AVCA Honorable Mention All-Americans.

From 1999 through 2002, Horsmon served as head coach of Robert Morris University in Pittsburgh. Almost immediately, he turned around a program coming off five consecutive losing campaigns. In four seasons, Horsmon guided the Colonials to three Northeast Conference regular-season championships (1999, 2001, 2002), four Northeast Conference Tournament championships (1999, 2000, 2001, 2002) and four straight NCAA Tournament appearances. His record in conference play was a dominant 42-2. Horsmon earned Northeast Conference Coach of the Year honors in 1999 and 2002.

In addition to his collegiate experience, Horsmon served as head coach of the Adidas Penn Juniors 18-year-old Elite team and the Southern Maryland Juniors - both club Junior Olympic teams. The Adidas Penn Juniors were regionally ranked on the east coast. The Southern Maryland Juniors were ranked No. 1 in the Chesapeake Region in 1999.

Horsmon, a Maryland native, began his career in 1996 as head coach at Calvert High School in Prince Frederick, Md. In three seasons, he amassed a 60-5 record and won the Class 3A Maryland State Championship and a regional title in 1998. That year, Horsmon was named Washington Post Coach of the Year.

Horsmon holds a bachelor of science from Frostburg State University (1991) and a teaching certificate from Salisbury State University (1993). He is a member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association and serves as a poll voter for the USA Today/AVCA Top 25.

ASSISTANT COACH TAMI ORES

FIRST SEASON AT MARYLAND • XAVIER '01

Tami Ores comes to College Park, Md. after five years at the University of Dayton, where she served under Terrapin head coach Tim Horsmon as his top assistant and recruiting coordinator.

Ores spent the last five years at the University of Dayton with Horsmon, winning four Atlantic 10 Tournament championships and earning four NCAA Tournament berths. As recruiting coordinator, Ores played a significant role in the Flyers' success the last five seasons, hauling in several highly-touted recruiting classes. According to prepvolleyball.com, Dayton had three top-30 classes in five years, including the No. 22 class in 2006.

Ores helped produce back-to-back Atlantic 10 Setters of the Year at Dayton in 2005 (Nicole Schott) and 2006 (Erin Schroeder). The Flyers totaled more than 1,700 assists each of the last three years under Ores' guidance, including a school-record 1,992 in 2006. The Flyers hit a school record .255 in 2006, as well. Schroeder earned All-Region and All-American Honors in 2007.

Ores also made an impact coaching the Flyers' defensive specialists. Ores coached libero Adrienne Green, Dayton's all-time digs leader and one of the all-time NCAA leaders in digs per game.

A former two-time captain and All-Atlantic 10 setter at Xavier University, Ores finished seventh in the country in assists per game as a junior with 1,378 total. Ores and the Musketeers went to the Atlantic 10 Tournament championship match in 2000, where she earned all-tournament honors. Xavier won 78 games in Ores' four years.

Ores also served on the Executive Board of the Student Athletic Advisory Council, received the Thomas E. Sedler Award and won an NCAA Leadership at Xavier.

After graduating from Xavier in 2001, Ores got her first taste of coaching with the 14 Open team at the Mizuno Cincy Classics in 2001, followed by a stint at Delaware High School in Delaware, Ohio in 2002.

A Pontiac, Ill. Native, Ores received a Bachelor of Science Degree in sports management from Xavier in 2001.

ASSISTANT COACH JASON OLIVER

FIRST SEASON AT MARYLAND • GEORGE MASON '98

Jason Oliver comes to College Park, Md. from the University of Dayton, where he worked the previous three years under new Terps head coach Tim Horsmon.

Oliver spent the past three seasons at Dayton, primarily working with the Flyers' front row players. Dayton's front row thrived under Oliver's tutelage, hitting over .250 the past two seasons and averaging over 2.6 blocks per game in the same span. Oliver helped train two Atlantic 10 Players of the Year, two A-10 Setters of the Year and two A-10 Rookies of the Yzear, as well as 11 all-conference performers. The 2005 Flyers set school records in kills (2,143), total attacks (5,523) and assists (1,965).

The Flyers ascended to new heights as a team during Oliver's stay, going 80-24 in three seasons, including three A-10 regular season championships and two A-10 Tournament titles. Last season, Dayton achieved a program best 33-2 record and a No. 12 national ranking.

Oliver assisted Horsmon in all aspects of the Dayton program, including coaching, technical development, scheduling, travel, community involvement and off-season training. Oliver also coached the Dayton Juniors club team all three years of his Dayton tenure.

Prior to Dayton, Oliver spent five seasons at West Virginia as the top assistant in charge of setters and recruiting. He has also served as an assistant coach with Towson University, California Lutheran and Marymount University.

As a collegian, Oliver was an all-league setter for George Mason University, leading the Patriots in assists and digs as a co-captain his senior year. He set school records with 99 assists in a match and 1,638 in a season. Before attending George Mason, Oliver was a two-time, all-league setter at American River Community College in California, where he was team MVP and captain during each of his two seasons.

A native of Thousand Oaks, Calif., Oliver received a Bachelor of Arts in communications from George Mason in 1998 and a Masters of Science in athletic coaching education from West Virginia in 2005.

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

DEEP ROOTS, BROAD IMPACT

Charles Benedict Calvert founded the Maryland Agricultural College in 1856 with the goal of creating a school that would offer outstanding practical knowledge to him and his neighbors and be "an institution superior to any other."

One hundred and fifty years later, the University of Maryland has blossomed from its roots as the state's first agricultural college and one of America's original land grant institutions into a model of the modern research university. It is the state's greatest asset for its economic development and its future, and has made its mark in the nation and the world.

Calvert would be astounded by the depth and breadth of research activities, innovative educational programs, and the single-minded pursuit of excellence that are part of the University of Maryland today. Maryland is ranked 18th among the nation's top public research universities by U.S. News & World Report, with 31 academic programs in the Top 10 and 86 in the Top 25. It is also ranked No. 37th in the world, according to the Institute of Higher Education at at Shanghai's Jiao Tong University.

Maryland is the state's premier center of research and graduate education and the public institution of choice for undergraduate students of exceptional ability and promise. The faculty includes four Nobel laureates, six Pulitzer Prize winners, a three-time Emmy Award winner, more than 40 members of national academies and scores of Fulbright scholars. The university focuses great attention on the highest academic standards, affordability for all qualified students, and a President's Promise program that guarantees opportunity for extraordinary extracurricular and professional experiences for each student.

It has earned a national reputation for its enriched educational experiences for undergraduates, including such widely imitated living/learning programs as College Park Scholars; Gemstone, a unique program that brings teams of students together from across disciplines to tackle specific technical problems; and the Hinman CEO Entrepreneurship Program, sponsored jointly by the A. James Clark School of Engineering and the Robert H. Smith School of Business, and widely recognized as the most successful student entrepreneurship program in the nation.

These programs are guided by outstanding faculty whose accomplishments in research abound. Whether the issue is Mideast peace, cutting-edge research in nanoscience, homeland security or bioscience advances, Maryland faculty are selected for national leadership and are making news. Many recent major faculty initiatives receiving significant external support strengthen our homeland security endeavors—centers for research on agrosecurity and emergency management; intermodal freight transportation security; behavioral and social analyses of terrorism and responses to terrorism; astrophysics and advanced world climate and weather prediction; and a national Center for Advanced Study of Language.

In addition to its academic prowess, Maryland is also home to the Terrapins, whose athletic achievements are a perennial source of pride for nearly 250,000 alumni and residents of the state. In 2005-2006, the Terrapins brought home national championships in four sports — men's soccer, field hockey, competitive cheer and women's basketball — more than any university in the nation.

Whether aiming for the skies or pioneering journalism programs in China, the University of Maryland is surging ahead. Building on the work of outstanding faculty and students, and with the loyal support of alumni and friends, Maryland is moving aggressively and confidently to a decade that will shine brighter than any other in its history.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
CALIFORNIA '59
10TH YEAR

In September 1998, C. D. (Dan) Mote, Jr. began his tenure as President of the University of Maryland and Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He was recruited to lead the University of Maryland to national eminence under a mandate by the state. Since assuming the presidency, he has encouraged an environment of excellence across the University and given new impetus to the momentum generated by a talented faculty and student body. Under his leadership, academic programs have flourished. In 2005, the University was ranked 18th among public research universities, up from 30th in 1998. President Mote has emphasized broad access to the university's model, enriched undergraduate curriculum programs and launched the Baltimore Incentive Awards Program to recruit and provide full support to high school students of outstanding potential who have overcome extraordinary adversity during their lives.

He has spurred the university to lead the state in the development of its high-tech economy, especially in the information and communication, bioscience and biotechnology, and nano-technology sectors. President Mote has greatly expanded the university's partnerships with corporate and federal laboratories and successfully negotiated to bring to the College Park area the first Science Research Park sponsored by the People's Republic of China. Under his leadership, the University has established a research park, The University of Maryland Enterprise Campus, M-Square, located on a 115-acre site adjacent to the University of Maryland/College Park Metro with 3 million square feet of development potential. Among its first tenants are the Center for Advanced Study of Language, a joint venture of the University and Department of Defense, and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's new World Weather and Climate Prediction Center.

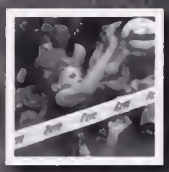
During President Mote's second year in office, the University began the largest building boom in its history, with more than $100 million in new projects breaking ground that year. New facilities address every aspect of university life, from the arts to recreation to classrooms and laboratories, and, in creative partnership with the private sector, new residential facilities. Highlights of the construction activity include the stunning Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center; the Comcast Center, a state of the art sports complex; a high tech research greenhouse; and new classrooms for chemistry, computer science, business and engineering. President Mote also led the development of a new Facilities Master Plan for development in the next 20 years, which is noted for its emphasis on environmental stewardship.

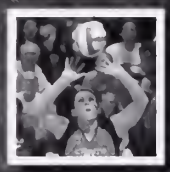
Dr. Mote is a leader in the national dialogue on higher education and his analyses of shifting funding models have been featured in local and national media. He has testified on major educational issues before Congress, representing the University and higher education associations on the problem of visa barriers for international students and scholars and on deemed export control issues. He has been asked to serve on a high level National Academies Committee appointed at the request of the Senate Energy Subcommittee of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee to identify challenges to United States leadership in key areas of science and technology and to be a member of the Leadership Council of the National Innovation Initiative, an activity of the Council on Competitiveness. He has served as vice chair of the Department of Defense Basic Research Committee, and is a member of the Council of the National Academy of Engineering. In 2004-2005, he served as President of the Atlantic Coast Conference. In its last ranking in 2002, "Washington Business Forward" magazine counted him among the top 20 most influential leaders in the region.

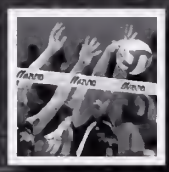
Prior to assuming the Presidency at Maryland, Dr. Mote served on the University of California, Berkeley faculty for 31 years. From 1991 to 1998, he was Vice Chancellor at Berkeley, held an endowed chair in Mechanical Systems and was President of the UC Berkeley Foundation. He led a comprehensive capital campaign for Berkeley that raised $1.4 B. He earlier served as chair of Berkeley's Department of Mechanical Engineering and led the department to its number one ranking in the National Research Council review of graduate program effectiveness.

Dr. Mote's research lies in dynamic systems and biomechanics. Internationally recognized for his research on the dynamics of gyroscopic systems and the biomechanics of snow skiing, he has produced more than 300 publications, holds patents in the U.S., Norway, Finland and Sweden, and has mentored 56 Ph.D. students. He received a B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. in mechanical engineering from the University of California, Berkeley. President Mote has received numerous awards and honors, including the Humboldt Prize awarded by the Federal Republic of Germany. He is a recipient of the Berkeley Citation, an award from the University of California-Berkeley similar to the honorary doctorate, and was named Distinguished Engineering Alumnus. He has received two honorary doctorates. He is a member of the U.S. National Academy of Engineering and serves on its Council, and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He was elected to Honorary Membership in the ASME International, its most distinguished recognition, and is a Fellow of the International Academy of Wood Science, the Acoustical Society of America, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. In Spring 2005, he was named recipient of the 2005 J. P. Den Hartog award by the ASME International Technical Committee on Vibration and Sound to honor his lifelong contribution to the teaching and/or practice of vibration engineering. In Fall 2005, he received the 2005 Founders Award from the National Academy of Engineering in recognition of his comprehensive body of work on the dynamics of moving flexible structures and for leadership in academia.

He and his wife of over 40 years, Patricia Mote, have two married children, Melissa and Adam, and four grandchildren. Patsy Mote has continued her strong support of the arts and is spokesperson for the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center and a member of Prince George's County Arts Commission.

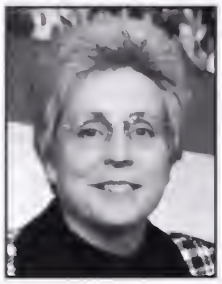






DEBORAH A. YOW

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS • 15TH YEAR AT MARYLAND



Deborah A. Yow is in the 15th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. In Yow's 14-plus years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable 16 national championships and graduated student-athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights among the nation's elite intercollegiate athletic programs.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her prior election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada. She serves as the current President of the national Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Football Foundation, as well as the Board of Directors of USA Football and the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Academic Enhancement Committee.

She has been honored by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the 20 most influential people in intercollegiate athletics, was cited in The Chronicle of Higher Education in October 2007 as one of the "Ten Most Powerful People in College Athletics/The Builder" and she has received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

Dr. Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television. The committee is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television, including multi-year ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities.

Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics" in New York.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goa oriented organization with 27 sports and more than 70 student-athletes.
- Balanced all 14 of the department's annual budgets (non of the budgets were balanced in the 10 years prior to he arrival). The budget now approaches $60 million annuall and the $51 million debt which her administration inherite has been reduced to $7.6 million.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provide for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibilit graduation rate of approximately 85 percent for student athletes at Maryland. Academic outcomes and student-athlet welfare have received consistent and focused attention.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the uppe 7 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts o behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletic have increased over 350 percent and corporate sponsorshi revenues have increased by over 300 percent during he tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities fo the department's 27 teams. The 18,000-seat Comcast Cente for men's and women's basketball and other sports that us the facility is a prime example of the remarkable $250 millio upgrade of athletic facilities.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy wit management, marketing and fund-raising applications.

Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal Named Deborah A. Yow One Of The 20 Most Influential People In College Athletics.

Yow congratulates one of the members of the Maryland Competitive Cheer team that won the 2006 NCA Division I National Championship.

- Significantly improved customer care in every area of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Maryland captured a remarkable seven national championships during the past three seasons.
- In the recent academic year, the Terrapins achieved the highest student-athlete graduation rate in the history of Maryland athletics and had the highest graduation rate of any public institution in the Atlantic Coast Conference.
- Fundraising for Maryland athletics set a historic mark of $24.7 million in 2006-07.
- Maryland was selected by U.S. News & World Report and Sports Illustrated as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).
- In 2005-06, Maryland Athletics won the inaugural PRISM Award as the best-managed Division I collegiate athletics program in the nation.
- Maryland was ranked as the sixth-finest athletic program in the nation by the Center for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics, based on comprehensive criteria such as graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.
- In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlantic Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCAA National Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gary Williams, the men's basketball team appeared in 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments and in 12 of the last 15 tournaments.
- Women's basketball won the 2006 NCAA National Championship under head coach Brenda Frese, completing an amazing turnaround that saw the program go from a 10-18 record to a National Championship in four seasons.
- In football, the Terps won the 2001 Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl, followed that with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory over the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl, again followed by a 10-win season and a 41-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl on New Year's Day 2004. In the 2006 season, Maryland returned to the bowl scene, where the Terps defeated Purdue, 24-7, in the Champs Sports Bowl, and in 2007 was selected to play Oregon State in the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco. Graduation rates in football are exemplary and the program was recently recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its academic excellence under Coach Ralph Friedgen.

Additionally, Maryland is one of only three universities in the nation to win National Championships in men's basketball, women's basketball and football. Stanford and UCLA are the other NCAA Division I institutions to achieve that mark.

Set an ACC single-game record for women's basketball attendance by drawing 17,950 to a regular-season game at Comcast Center and led the ACC in season attendance.

- Hired Dave Cottle, the sixth-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S., who guided his team to the NCAA Final Four in three of his first four seasons.
- Field hockey earned National Championships in 2005-06 and in 2006-07, and has become a perennial participant in the Final Four in that sport.
- In women's lacrosse, hired Cathy Reese, who was named the 2007 ACC Coach of the Year in her first season as coach of the Terps.
- Men's soccer has appeared in four Final Fours in the past six years and won the NCAA National Championship.
- Football facilities have been significantly enhanced with team house, stadium and practice field upgrades. The Football Academic Center was the first improvement, as it took priority over all other initiatives.
- In 2006-07, 16 Maryland teams competed in postseason play.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 14 years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied... our vision is to be one of the Top 5 programs in the nation consistently... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools... to work hard and work smart... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). In 2002, she also brought to the University of Maryland Brenda Frese, who at that time was the National Coach of the Year in women's basketball. Four years later, Frese led the Terrapins to the NCAA National Championship at the Women's Final Four in Boston.

Dr. Yow is known as "a coach's A.D.," while also being highly organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator and leader.

A successful former basketball coach, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as A.D. at Saint Louis University.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States. She holds a bachelor's degree from Elon University, a masters degree from Liberty University and a doctorate (honorus causa) from the U.S. Sports Academy and an honorary doctorate for career achievement from Elon University.

Summing up the entire Maryland athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls 'the three A's of the University -- Academics, the Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success... and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

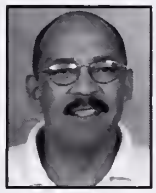
ACADEMIC SUPPORT & CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.



Led by associate athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes. Don Pearman works with the Maryland volleyball team.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for professional academic counselors, a director of enrichment programs, an assistant program coordinator and a graduate assistant. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house recently. It features offices for two counselors, a program coordinator and three learning specialists; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

MARYLAND GAMEPLAN

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.

CAREER NETWORKING NIGHT

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of progra for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume- writing, intervie ing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. D ing the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes c learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of tl program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking direc to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night rec nize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Stude athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Departme of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and mee on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. missi is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoti student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campu local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) CHAMPS/Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and soci responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for th purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

ACADEMIC SUPPORT FOR RETURNING ATHLETES PROGRAM

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA GUIDELINES

Credentials: Media and photographer credentials for events at Maryland's Comcast Center may be obtained by working press, radio and television by writing or calling Joey Flyntz in the Maryland Athletic Media Relations Office, 2725 Comcast Center, College Park, MD 20741-0295. All requests should be submitted at least 48 hours prior to the event by phoning the Media Relations Office at (301) 314-8093. Since space is limited, accommodations are on a priority basis: daily newspapers and wire services, originating radio and television stations, national weekly or monthly publications, electronic media outlets, local and regional television crews. Priority is granted to members of the media who cover Maryland Athletics on a regular basis, and to visiting media members. Photo passes will be issued only to accredited photographers on assignment.

Services: The Media Relations Office will provide complete statistics at the conclusion of every home game. Programs containing rosters and event notes on each team will be provided for the working media.
